

During structural transitions, headcount shifts and rapid organizational changes, events cannot just be passive listening sessions, they must drive execution.

As The Intentional Emcee™, Shamis Pitts, MBA, CPC, PCC, SHRM-SCP, serves as the strategic connective tissue for small, medium and large convenings. A seasoned human capital strategist and operator, Shamis brings 20+ years experience to the stage, anchoring team, organizational and participant alignment when you need it most.

THREE ENGAGEMENT CHANNELS

Mix, match and stack the presence you need to serve your audience and ideal outcomes.

Main Stage Anchor & Emcee

Seamless, strategic, multi-day event ownership.

Shamis can manage transitions, synthesize sessions on the fly, maintain audience momentum with humor and compelling insights, bridge the narrative gap between different event blocks and navigate unexpected setbacks with ease.

Keynote Speaker

High-authority thought leadership.

Shamis will deliver a customized, analytical and highly interactive keynote designed to challenge legacy assumptions and inspire practical action.

High-Stakes Facilitator & Panel Moderator

Active audience synthesis and executive group dynamics.

Shamis can lead executive roundtable sessions, interactive leadership labs and high-profile panel discussions.
